

“Woman, Behold Your Son”

As Jesus talks with His mother and also His beloved disciple, He shows us the importance of both earthly and heavenly relationships.

The Story:

²³ When the soldiers crucified Jesus, they took His clothes, dividing them into four shares, one for each of them, with the undergarment remaining.

This garment was seamless, woven in one piece from top to bottom.

²⁴ “Let’s not tear it,” they said to one another. “Let’s decide by lot who will get it.”

This happened that the scripture might be fulfilled that said,

“They divided my clothes among them

and cast lots for my garment.” (Psalm 22:18)

So this is what the soldiers did.

²⁵ Near the cross of Jesus stood His mother, His mother’s sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. ²⁶ When Jesus saw His mother there, and the disciple whom He loved standing nearby, He said to her, “Woman, here is your son,” ²⁷ and to the disciple, “Here is your mother.”

From that time on, this disciple took her into his home.” - John 19:23-29

Four Important Thoughts

1. A Mother’s Remorse.

²⁵ Near the cross of Jesus stood His mother, His mother’s sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. ²⁶ When Jesus saw His mother there, and the disciple whom He loved standing nearby, He said to her, “Woman, here is your son,” ²⁷ and to the disciple, “Here is your mother.” - John 19:25-27

2. A Man’s Responsibility.

²⁶ When Jesus saw His mother there...” - John 19:26

“Give proper recognition to those widows who are really in need. ⁴ But if a widow has children or grandchildren, these should learn first of all to put their religion into practice by caring for their own family and so repaying their parents and grandparents, for this is pleasing to God.” - 1 Timothy 5:3,4

“Anyone who does not provide for their relatives, and especially for their own household, has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever.”

- 1 Timothy 5:8

3. A Mission Remaining.

²⁶ When Jesus saw His mother there, and the disciple whom He loved standing nearby, He said to her, “Woman, here is your son,” ²⁷ and to the disciple, “Here is your mother.” - John 19:26-27

Who does Jesus ask to do the work for Him?

1. Those who love Him.
2. Those who make themselves available.
3. Those who have the ability.
4. Those who know Him best.

* If you spend a lot of time with Jesus, He’ll have great things for you to do.

4. A More Meaningful Relationship.

²⁶ “He said to her, “Woman, here is your son,” ²⁷ and to the disciple, “Here is your mother.” - John 19:26-27

* Jesus died on the cross to establish relationships that are far more meaningful than earthly ones, which certainly are precious. He came to be the “firstborn among many brethren,” as God becomes the Father of all who accept Jesus’ gift of salvation, purchased there on the cross.
