

“The Faith of Abraham”

“By faith Abraham, when called to go to a place he would later receive as his inheritance, obeyed and went, even though he did not know where he was going.

⁹ By faith he made his home in the promised land like a stranger in a foreign country; he lived in tents, as did Isaac and Jacob, who were heirs with him of the same promise. ¹⁰ For he was looking forward to the city with foundations, whose architect and builder is God. ¹¹ And by faith even Sarah, who was past childbearing age, was enabled to bear children because she considered him faithful who had made the promise. ¹² And so from this one man, and he as good as dead, came descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky and as countless as the sand on the seashore.

¹³ All these people were still living by faith when they died. They did not receive the things promised; they only saw them and welcomed them from a distance, admitting that they were foreigners and strangers on earth. ¹⁴ People who say such things show that they are looking for a country of their own. ¹⁵ If they had been thinking of the country they had left, they would have had opportunity to return. ¹⁶ Instead, they were longing for a better country—a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God, for He has prepared a city for them.”

- Hebrews 11:8-16

Abraham displays a pattern for our faith. The Apostle Paul tells us to “Consider Abraham: he believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness.”

- Galatians 3:6

1. The Pilgrimage of Faith.

“By faith Abraham, when called to go to a place he would later receive as his inheritance, obeyed and went, even though he did not know where he was going.”

- Hebrews 11:8

a) Abraham’s submission to God

- The better you know God, the quicker you obey Him.

b) Abraham’s sovereign call from God

- The farther we walk with God, the farther we will get away from the things that will spiritually kill us.

2. The Patience of Faith.

“By faith he made his home in the promised land like a stranger in a foreign country; he lived in tents, as did Isaac and Jacob, who were heirs with him of the same promise. ¹⁰ For he was looking forward to the city with foundations, whose architect and builder is God.”

- Hebrews 11:9,10

- Real, genuine faith has patience to wait on God to reveal His total will in my life.

3. The Power of Faith.

“And by faith even Sarah, who was past childbearing age, was enabled to bear children because she considered him faithful who had made the promise. ¹² And so from this one man, and he as good as dead, came descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky and as countless as the sand on the seashore.”

- Hebrews 11:11,12

4. The Positive Outlook of Faith.

“All these people were still living by faith when they died. They did not receive the things promised; they only saw them and welcomed them from a distance, admitting that they were foreigners and strangers on earth. ¹⁴ People who say such things show that they are looking for a country of their own. ¹⁵ If they had been thinking of the country they had left, they would have had opportunity to return. ¹⁶ Instead, they were longing for a better country—a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God, for He has prepared a city for them.”

- Hebrews 11:13-16

Faith is a powerful commodity. It sees the invisible, it hears the inaudible, it touches the intangible, and it accomplishes the impossible. Jesus said, “With men it is impossible, but with God all things are possible.”

- Matthew 19:26

“The Faith of Abraham”

“By faith Abraham, when called to go to a place he would later receive as his inheritance, obeyed and went, even though he did not know where he was going.

⁹ By faith he made his home in the promised land like a stranger in a foreign country; he lived in tents, as did Isaac and Jacob, who were heirs with him of the same promise. ¹⁰ For he was looking forward to the city with foundations, whose architect and builder is God. ¹¹ And by faith even Sarah, who was past childbearing age, was enabled to bear children because she considered him faithful who had made the promise. ¹² And so from this one man, and he as good as dead, came descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky and as countless as the sand on the seashore.

¹³ All these people were still living by faith when they died. They did not receive the things promised; they only saw them and welcomed them from a distance, admitting that they were foreigners and strangers on earth. ¹⁴ People who say such things show that they are looking for a country of their own. ¹⁵ If they had been thinking of the country they had left, they would have had opportunity to return. ¹⁶ Instead, they were longing for a better country—a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God, for He has prepared a city for them.”

- Hebrews 11:8-16

Abraham displays a pattern for our faith. The Apostle Paul tells us to “Consider Abraham: he believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness.”

- Galatians 3:6

1. The _____ of Faith.

“By faith Abraham, when called to go to a place he would later receive as his inheritance, obeyed and went, even though he did not know where he was going.”

- Hebrews 11:8

a) Abraham’s _____ to God

- The better you know God, the quicker you obey Him.

b) Abraham’s _____ from God

- The farther we walk with God, the farther we will get away from the things that will spiritually kill us.

2. The _____ of Faith.

“By faith he made his home in the promised land like a stranger in a foreign country; he lived in tents, as did Isaac and Jacob, who were heirs with him of the same promise. ¹⁰ For he was looking forward to the city with foundations, whose architect and builder is God.”

- Hebrews 11:9,10

- Real, genuine faith has patience to wait on God to reveal His total will in my life.

3. The _____ of Faith.

“And by faith even Sarah, who was past childbearing age, was enabled to bear children because she considered him faithful who had made the promise. ¹² And so from this one man, and he as good as dead, came descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky and as countless as the sand on the seashore.”

- Hebrews 11:11,12

4. The _____ Outlook of Faith.

“All these people were still living by faith when they died. They did not receive the things promised; they only saw them and welcomed them from a distance, admitting that they were foreigners and strangers on earth. ¹⁴ People who say such things show that they are looking for a country of their own. ¹⁵ If they had been thinking of the country they had left, they would have had opportunity to return. ¹⁶ Instead, they were longing for a better country—a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God, for He has prepared a city for them.”

- Hebrews 11:13-16

Faith is a powerful commodity. It sees the invisible, it hears the inaudible, it touches the intangible, and it accomplishes the impossible. Jesus said, “With men it is impossible, but with God all things are possible.”

- Matthew 19:26