

Our Merciful God

“In those days there was no king in Israel; everyone did what was right in his own eyes.”
- Judges 17:6

Lessons Learned in Judges:

1. We must drive the enemies out of our lives. Ch. 1

Why did Israel settle for less than total victory?

1. Total victory meant more work. vs. 1,2
2. They didn't take their enemy seriously. vs. 2-4
3. They didn't take their God seriously. vs. 5
4. They were satisfied with less than God's best. vs. 5

“Carelessness is the initial phase of sinning!” - Edgar Brightman

“The part of ourselves that we don't crucify on the cross may be a very little part of us—but it is likely to be the root of our future spiritual defeats.”
- A. W. Tozer

The Arithmetic of Sin:

It adds to your troubles.

It subtracts from your focus on God.

It multiplies your emptiness.

It divides your heart.

2. There's a need for consecrated leaders. (Judges 2:6-10)

“A great leader comes along about once in a generation ... great problems come along about three times a week.”

3. The human heart is desperately wicked. (Judges 2:11-13)

Israel's wickedness is demonstrated by their ...

- A. Tendency to slide when godly influence is removed.
- B. Continual sin, which further corrupted their hearts.

4. God is always trying to reach sinful humans. (Judges 2:14-18)

Observations:

- A. God was in control even when His people were out of control.
- B. God will allow bad things so we will turn back to Him.
- C. God uses ordinary people to do extraordinary things.
- D. God's love and mercy never end.

God repeated His mercy again and again, although it was seldom appreciated. Do I appreciate His mercy and forgiveness for me?
