

Our Revealing God

Reacting to God's Revelations

Introduction:

Our actions when things are going well are not as significant as our reactions when things are going wrong.

Issue:

How do I react to God when His will is contrary to the thinking of my peers and the teaching of my life?

Ten Travel Tips for Tarshish:

1. Arrangements for the wrong destination can be easily made. vs. 3
  - The easiest way may not be God's way.
2. It costs more to go second class. vs. 3
  - When we go in obedience to God — we go at His expense.
  - If we disagree and do our own thing — we pay the price.
3. You really can't "Get away from it all". vs. 4
  - Stop running from God and start relying on God.
4. Your baggage may not arrive at the destination. vs. 5
  - When God begins to deal with our lives, those things which were so important begin to lose their value.

5. Your rest will be disturbed by housekeeping. vs. 6
  - Private disobedience will eventually affect others besides yourself.
6. You will be given personal attention. vs. 7
  - God uses all types of avenues to communicate His will.
7. You will have to show your passport. vs. 8-11
8. Your money will be refunded if you leave immediately. vs. 12-14
  - Nothing corrects disobedience except obedience.
9. You will be able to go swimming. vs. 15
10. Your trip will be an unforgettable experience. vs. 17

Conclusion:

1. If God is working you over, it's a good sign.
2. Obey God even if you don't understand everything.
3. God will not allow you to disobey Him without letting you know.
4. If I am in the wrong place — the right place is empty.
