

Talking to God

The Person of Prayer

“One day Jesus was praying in a certain place. When He finished, one of His disciples said to Him, “Lord, teach us to pray, just as John taught his disciples.” He said to them, “When you pray, say...” - Luke 11:1,2

Prayer is best learned when we are faced with something bigger than ourselves.

The Pattern of Prayer. (vs. 2-4)

A. Recognition our source

“Father, hallowed be your name...” - Luke 11:2

B. Resignation of our selfishness

“... your kingdom come....” - Luke 11:2

C. Renewal of our supply

“Give us each day our daily bread.” - Luke 11:3

D. Repentance of our sins

“Forgive us our sins, for we also forgive everyone who sins against us” - Luke 11:4

E. Realization our shortcomings

“And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one.” - Luke 11:4

F. Rejoicing in our Saviour

“...for yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.” - Matthew 6:13

The Parable of Prayer. (vs. 5-8)

A. The Dilemma (vs. 5,6)

“Then Jesus said to them, “Suppose you have a friend, and you go to him at midnight and say, ‘Friend, lend me three loaves of bread; <sup>6</sup> a friend of mine on a journey has come to me, and I have no food to offer him.’” - Luke 11:5,6

B. The Determination (vs. 7,8)

“And suppose the one inside answers, ‘Don’t bother me. The door is already locked, and my children and I are in bed. I can’t get up and give you anything.’ <sup>8</sup> I tell you, even though he will not get up and give you the bread because of friendship, yet because of your shameless audacity he will surely get up and give you as much as you need.” - Luke 11:7,8

C. The Difference (vs. 11-13)

“Which of you fathers, if your son asks for a fish, will give him a snake instead? <sup>12</sup> Or if he asks for an egg, will give him a scorpion? <sup>13</sup> If you then, though you are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give the Holy Spirit to those who ask Him!” - Luke 11:11-13

The difference between God and the friend who gave the loaves:

1. With God it is never midnight. Psalm 121:3,4
2. God is never bothered. 2 Peter 3:9
3. God never runs out of resources. Psalm 50:9,10
4. God is never taken by surprise. “...your Father knows what you need before you ask Him.” - Matthew 6:8
5. God gives from a pure motive. Psalm 103:17

The Progression of Prayer. (vs. 9-10)

“So I say to you: Ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you. <sup>10</sup> For everyone who asks receives; the one who seeks finds; and to the one who knocks, the door will be opened.” - Luke 11:9,10

“To pray is to change. Prayer is the central avenue God uses to transform us. If we are unwilling to change, we will abandon prayer as a noticeable characteristic of our lives.” - Richard Foster

To cease asking
To cease seeking
To cease knocking
Is to cease changing and growing!

The Promise of Prayer. (vs. 11-13)

“Which of you fathers, if your son asks for a fish, will give him a snake instead? <sup>12</sup> Or if he asks for an egg, will give him a scorpion? <sup>13</sup> If you then, though you are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give the Holy Spirit to those who ask Him!” - Luke 11:11-13

- If imperfect fathers can give good gifts, how much more can our Heavenly Father give good gifts to His children?
- How, Much, More!
